

Overview

Banking and Financial Services
Consumer Credit
Company
Insolvency
Property
Trusts
Wills and Estates

Mediation and Arbitration

Profile: Overview

Catherine has a broad-based Chancery practice, with a particular interest in insolvency and property law. In 2014 she was appointed Junior Counsel to the Crown (HM Attorney General's C Panel). Catherine frequently appears before Masters, Judges and Registrars in the High Court, on behalf of private and government clients. She recently appeared in the Court of Appeal for the successful respondents.

Experience and Expertise

Catherine has a Chancery practice, with an emphasis on insolvency and property law. She undertakes a range of advisory and drafting work for individuals, companies and government departments.

Catherine appears for both debtors and petitioners in the Companies Court and the Bankruptcy Court. She also deals with company law more generally. Catherine has a particular interest in directors' disqualification, acting the Secretary of State for Business Innovation and Skills, the Official Receiver and directors.

She has considerable experience in the county courts and First Tier Tribunal acting for landlords and tenants in cases involving possession, forfeiture and service charges. She has also advised on various issues arising from residential and business tenancies. Catherine frequently appears for mortgagees intervening in forfeiture situations.

Cases and Work of Note

- Canning v Irwin Mitchell LLP [2017] EWHC Civ 718
- Cocking v Eacott [2016] EWCA Civ 140
- Pioneer Cladding Ltd v John Graham Construction Ltd [2015] EWHC 1314 (QB)
- Secretary of State for Business, Innovation & Skills v Victor Mears [Mithani: Bulletin 53]

Qualifications

Catherine read law at Trinity College, Cambridge, where she was elected president of her college law society and was twice awarded the Lizette Bentwich prize. She was an Inner Temple Exhibitioner during her BVC year and was called to the Bar in 2008. She joined Chambers as a tenant in October 2009 after completing pupillage here.

Memberships

Chancery Bar Association

Other Details

VAT Registration Number: 116580717

Bar Membership Number: 54371

For More Information

Please click on the links to the left or contact a member of the clerking team