Francesca Quint

| Call 1970

Profile: Trusts

Experience and Expertise

Francesca Quint acts for clients on matters involving private as well as charitable trusts, including the interpretation and drafting of trust instruments, will trusts and deeds of appointment and variation, and representing clients, particularly in less contentious matters such as applications under the Variation of Trusts Act 1958. She is known for her plain style of drafting, which is designed to produce documents which can be readily understood by the lay client.
