

Practice Areas

Overview

Charities

Banking and Financial Services

Court of Protection

Insolvency

Property

Tax

Trusts

Wills and Estates

International

Joshua Winfield

| Call 2001

Profile: Banking and Financial Services

Experience and Expertise

Joshua has acted in and advised on litigation involving a range of company issues including shareholder disputes and directors' breaches of statutory and fiduciary duties. Recent work includes a case concerning the ownership of a company that held the lease of a fruit and vegetable stall in a London market and a dispute regarding the ownership of the sole share in a further education college and a claim for breach of duty and knowing receipt relating to the transfer of the college's assets to a charity.

Cases and Work of Note

- Hamilton College London Ltd v Ahmad [2013] EWHC 2072 (Ch); [2013] All ER (D) 310 (Jul): trial of preliminary issue as to the ownership of the single share in a company trading as a further education college.