Profile: Overview

Tom has a busy practice which focuses on commercial disputes but also encompasses civil fraud, company & insolvency, property, professional negligence, trusts and private client work.

Experience and Expertise

Tom's cases often have an international dimension and he is instructed by a wide range of solicitors. His clients have included government agencies, multinationals, major banks and large London estates.

He has appeared in a range of different courts and tribunals and continues to work on a number of complex, high-value cases. His experience also includes arbitration and mediation.

Recent quotes from Chambers and Partners and Chambers UK include:

- "He is excellent on trust-related disputes and his written work is very good."
(Chancery: Traditional, Chambers UK, 2017)
- "A brilliant tactician" and someone who is "a master when it comes to drafting."
- "Tom has an enviable commercial, property and traditional chancery pedigree."
- "Sources praise him for his timely, practical advice and the fact that he is very easy to work with."

He is happy to accept last-minute instructions in emergency matters such as obtaining or resisting freezing and search orders.
