Avtar Khangure KC has built a reputation as a leading silk for high value business disputes, with a particular focus on commercial, banking, restructuring and insolvency, company and professional liability litigation. His clients include major financial institutions, corporations and private individuals. Much of his practice is international and, in recent years, he has been involved in disputes in the Middle East, India, Singapore, Australia and Germany.

He is recognised as an excellent advocate and adviser by both Chambers UK Bar and The Legal 500 UK Bar, and is the former Chairman of the Midland Commercial and Chancery Bar.

COMMERCIAL DISPUTES

Avtar is regularly instructed in high value commercial disputes, often with an international element. He has extensive experience of both litigation and arbitration in the UK and abroad. His practice encompasses significant matters in the fields of civil fraud, banking, company law, insolvency, professional negligence, franchising, shareholder disputes, disciplinary proceedings before regulatory bodies, tax and VAT cases before the Special Commissioners and VAT Tribunals and product liability.

He has recently advised on cases involving:

- multi-million pound commercial disputes involving the motor-car industry
- civil fraud, including applications for freezing and search orders
- the insolvencies of large companies, including those listed on the stock exchange and trading in other jurisdictions
- multi-million pound shareholder disputes
- capital reductions
- cases involving trusts and fiduciaries
- piercing the corporate veil so as to render individual directors liable to a major bank in respect of invoice discounting agreements
- derivatives and hedging products
- franchising agreements
- corporation tax disputes before the Special Commissioners
- VAT disputes before the VAT Tribunal
- disciplinary proceedings before the IAEW and the Law Society
- competition disputes

- applications for insolvency practitioners seeking to recover assets fraudulently dissipated whether in the UK or outside
- applications on behalf of banks against individuals who have committed a fraud upon them civil asset recovery in the Crown Court
- applications for Customs and Excise.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL SERVICES

Avtar regularly acts for banks in many types of cases involving bank securities, including guarantees, letters of credit, bills of exchange, invoice discounting, insolvency, breach of trust and knowing/dishonest assistance in the dissipation of assets, fraud, etc. He was involved in a number of cases acting for a bank in which he successfully recovered large sums of money from directors of companies where the banks had no form of security.

RESTRUCTURING AND INSOLVENCY

Avtar has a strong reputation for his work in the areas of corporate and personal insolvency. He has been involved in many significant cases. Corporate insolvency matters have included complex cross-border issues, football league clubs (Northampton Town, Port Vale, Luton Town, Notts County, Carlisle), rugby union clubs (Moseley and Coventry) and normal trading companies.

Recent cases relating to individual insolvency have included the consideration of family law and the Human Rights Act upon insolvency, and the personal liability of office holders. He acts primarily for office holders, but also represents banks in factoring and loan agreements.

Avtar has been involved in many matters concerning company law, including multi-million pound shareholder disputes, derivative actions, capital reductions, restructuring and breach of duties by directors, both statutory and common law.

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

Avtar has been involved in many professional negligence cases, both for claimants and defendants, concerning claims against solicitors, accountants, surveyors and valuers, insolvency practitioners and others.

INTERNATIONAL

Avtar has a busy international practice. He has recently been involved in litigation and arbitrations in the Middle East, India, Singapore, Australia and Germany. He has experience of proceedings in the Dubai International Financial Centre.
