Dov Ohrenstein is appreciated by clients for his willingness to provide clear practical advice, robust negotiation skills, and forceful advocacy. His practice focuses on litigation and dispute resolution in the fields of commercial, private client and property law. He has wide-ranging experience across all manner of chancery matters including banking, company and insolvency, partnership, trusts, wills and probate and professional negligence cases, particularly solicitors' and accountants' negligence. He is equally experienced in complex contractual litigation, such as sale of goods, agency, loans and employment disputes. He is ranked as a leading junior by Chambers UK Bar and The Legal 500 UK Bar.

COMMERCIAL CHANCERY DISPUTES

Dov Ohrenstein has been recommended as a leading junior by Chambers UK Bar and The Legal 500 UK Bar in three commercial and chancery fields: commercial chancery, commercial litigation and professional negligence.

Commercial disputes are at the heart of much of Dov's practice. These typically arise in relation to the sale of goods and supply of services, agency agreements, loans and guarantees and often involve freezing orders and other applications for urgent injunctive relief.

He is regularly instructed to act both for and against investment and clearing banks as well as financial advisors in claims relating to loans, guarantees, security and the mis selling of derivative based and other financial products.

Dov has been instructed in relation to numerous partnership disputes concerning accountants, solicitors, doctors and other professionals as well as commercial joint ventures including multi-million-pound disputes concerning the development of various properties.

Dov has been instructed in a number of matters relating to commercial arbitrations such as enforcement of awards and procedural irregularities.

Dov is frequently instructed in relation to shareholder disputes, directors' duties and the liability of directors to third parties. Corporate veil issues, shareholders' unfair prejudice petitions, derivative actions by minority shareholders, claims concerning directors' negligence and breach of trust are all matters that he deals with regularly.

Many of Dov's commercial chancery cases involve international issues such as conflict of laws and jurisdictional arguments

Dov has experience of a wide range of cases concerning personal and corporate insolvency and related issues such as transactions defrauding creditors, unlawful preferences, and directors' misfeasance.

Dov's recent experience includes:
