"The team offers 'a fantastic service' and is 'willing to help out in times of a crisis'; 'you really notice the difference when you go elsewhere'."

The Legal 500 UK Bar 2019

Vastly experienced, Keith became Senior Clerk of the Chambers of John Mills QC at 11 Old Square in 1978, at the tender age of 21. Keith, alongside John Clark, has been joint senior clerk of Radcliffe Chambers since the merger with 11 New Square in 2006.

During his career, Keith has clerked such luminaries as Lord Browne-Wilkinson of Camden, Lord Scott of Foscote, Lord Justice Jonathan Parker and Lord Justice Lloyd during their time at the Bar. Keith also takes pride in the fact that two of Radcliffe's current silks have been clerked by him since they were pupils.

Keith, in conjunction with John, is responsible for overseeing all matters relating to the clerks' room ensuring a high level of service to both members of chambers and clients alike. Keith believes that a commercial, flexible and user-friendly approach is vital in building long-term trusting relationships with clients.

Keith and his team are regularly praised in both Chambers UK Bar and The Legal 500 UK Bar. They were recently described as "very responsive and helpful" and "always very accessible and client-focused" (Chambers UK Bar 2019).
