Lee works closely with our commercial, restructuring and insolvency barristers on the management and development of their practices.

As Deputy Head of Clerking, Lee supports John Clark in leading the clerking team, developing client relationships, and building chambers' brand both domestically and internationally.

He has over two decades of experience in his areas of expertise and is described by clients in directories as "very responsive, quick and reliable. He is everything you would want in a clerk and keeps us up to date on budget." "Lee Wright provides an exceptional service." (Chambers and Partners UK Bar Guide 2023)

"Special praise to Lee Wright who is incredibly responsive and goes above and beyond to help" – incredibly helpful and proactive' (The Legal 500 UK Bar 2022)

"a model of efficiency" (The Legal 500 UK Bar 2019).

Lee began clerking in 2002 and joined Radcliffe Chambers in 2015 with a team of barristers from 11 Stone Buildings.

He has a BTEC in Chambers Administration and is a member of the Institute of Barristers' Clerks.
