Thomas King joined Chambers in September 2026 and is a Pupil barrister.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Thomas practised as an Associate in Slaughter and May's Disputes and Investigations group where he played a key role in high-value international arbitrations and complex litigation.

Thomas completed a secondment at Vodafone Group, where he negotiated commercial contracts with large external suppliers and managed client relationships. He also undertook a competitive secondment in Brussels, gaining insight into EU law and engaging with European antitrust policymakers.

Thomas has delivered presentations on regulatory and litigation matters and completed mini-pupillages at leading commercial and chancery sets.
