Policy effective from: 01/04/18

Data Controller

Catherine Doran is the Data Controller under the General Data Protection Regulation, which means that she determines what purposes personal information held or will be used for. She is also responsible for notifying the Information Commissioner of the personal information she holds or is likely to hold, and the general purposes that this personal information will be used for.

Introduction

This policy describes how this personal information about individuals must be collected, handled, stored to meet Catherine's data protection standards and to comply with the law. The regulations apply regardless of whether personal information is stored electronically, on paper or on other materials.

Individuals can include clients, customers, suppliers, business contacts, employees of Radcliffe Chambers Services Limited, contractors and other people Catherine has a relationship with or may need to contact.

To comply with the law, personal information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely and not disclosed unlawfully.

The General Data Protection Regulation is underpinned by six important principles. They say that personal information must be:

1. processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner;
2. collected for specific, explicit, and legitimate purposes;
3. adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary for processing;
4. kept accurate and all reasonable steps to ensure that inaccurate personal information is rectified or deleted without delay;
5. kept only for the period necessary for processing;

6. secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, and accidental loss, destruction or damage.

General Data Protection Policy Information

Catherine Doran will, through appropriate management and strict application of criteria and controls:

- Observe the requirements regarding the fair collection and use of personal information;

- Take all reasonable steps to ensure the quality of personal information used;
- Take all reasonable steps to ensure appropriate retention and disposal of personal information;
- Take all reasonable steps to ensure that the rights of people about whom personal information is held, can be fully exercised under the GDPR. These include:
 - The right to be informed
 - The right of access
 - The right to rectification
 - The right to erase
 - The right to restrict processing
 - The right to data portability
 - The right to object
 - Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.
- Take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to safeguard personal information;
- Take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information is not transferred outside the EEA without suitable safeguards;
- Treat people justly and fairly whatever their age, religion, disability, gender, sexual orientation or ethnicity when dealing with requests for personal information;
- Set out clear procedures for responding to requests for personal information.

Data Storage

Catherine Doran takes the security of personal information and records relating to service users seriously and will take all reasonable steps to ensure they are stored securely and will only be accessible to authorised employees of Radcliffe Chambers Services Limited and contractors.

There are internal policies and controls in place to protect personal information against loss, accidental destruction, misuse or disclosure, and to ensure that personal information is not accessed, unless authorised. Personal information will be stored for only as long as it is needed or required by statute and will be disposed of appropriately.

Where Catherine Doran engages third parties to process personal information on her behalf, such parties do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of personal information.

Catherine Doran will take all reasonable steps to ensure all personal and company data is non-recoverable from any computer system previously used within the organisation, which has been passed on/sold to a third party.

Data Access and Accuracy

All individuals/data subjects have the right to access the personal information Catherine Doran holds about them, except where specific exemptions apply to a legal professional. Catherine Doran will also take reasonable steps ensure that this personal information is kept up to date.

In addition, Catherine Doran will take all reasonable steps to ensure that:

- Everyone processing personal information understands that they are contractually responsible for following good data protection practice
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately trained to do so
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately supervised
- Anybody interested in making enquiries about handling personal information knows what to do
